DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:..Hoshino et. al. Japan Patent Publication No. 11-151877 teaches (Figs.1-6b) an optical discrimination device and method of using same comprising: a cholesteric liquid crystal layer 3 as a reflective layer, a hologram forming layer 4, a protective laminate layer 5, an adhesive bonding release layer 2 and a substrate A. The device and method of Hoshino et. al. uses circularly polarizing light layers 7,8,9 to provide optical identification.

3. Neither Hoshino et. al. 877' or any of the other references of record (taken singly or in combination with other references) teaches or suggests the claimed discrimination medium comprising: an optical function layer including at least one of a cholesteric liquid crystal layer having a circular polarization light selectivity of reflecting predetermined circularly polarized light and a multi-layer film having plural light transparent films which are laminated and are different from each other in refractive index; an adhesive layer (which can be used with a substrate provided on the optical functional layer), a partial peeling layer having a first surface and a second surface with the first surface directly or indirectly contacting the adhesive layer and the second surface directly or indirectly contacting the optical functional layer and a structure which is provided at a portion of the second surface and of which the portion is easily peeled from the optical functional layer. These limitations are recited in claim 1. Claim 2 includes the limitations of claim 1 with the addition of the inequalities relating adhesion strength X_A , X_B and X_C (Claim 2) and the formation of a cavity using partial peeling layers using pressure or stress applied to the discrimination medium (claim 3).

Dependent claims 4-24 are inclusive of the limitations of either independent claims 1,2,3 as well as other additional limitations (See the dependent claims for these additional limitations.).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
